LUKOIL TO SUPPLY LUBRICANTS TO RUSSIA'S LARGEST GEOPHYSICAL COMPANY GEOTECH

LUKOIL has signed its first agreement with one of the world's largest geophysical company Geotech Seismic Services on supply of lubricants and process fluids.

LUKOIL lubricants will be used for servicing Geotech's passenger and commercial vehicles, off-road vehicles, drilling rigs and sea vessels. Particularly, motor, transmission and hydraulic oils developed specifically for equipment operated under extreme differences in air temperatures will constitute the bulk of the supplies.

For reference:

Geotech Seismic Services is the largest Russian geophysical company with a market share of over 40% in the land seismic sector. Among the Geotech's clients such oil companies as LUKOIL, Rosneft, Gazprom, Surgutneftegaz, Shell, Total and others. The company primary operations are located in Eastern Siberia, Timan-Pechora Province and Yamalo-Nenets Autonomous District.
