LUKOIL TO SUPPLY URALKALI WITH OVER 20 THOUSAND TONS OF OILS AND GREASES IN 2018

LUKOIL has won a tender on delivery of lubricants for Uralkali companies. In 2018, the Company will secure the Uralkali demand in over 20 thousand tons of engine, transmission, gear, hydraulic and circulating oils as well as FLEX greases.

The history of LUKOIL and leading global potash producer dates back more than 11 years. The Company takes part in Uralkali tenders on lubricants supplies every year and conducts pilot tests of new oils and greases on the equipment of its chemical mills.

Following successful tests, in 2018, the Company will for the first time supply to Uralkali GEYSER ST 32 hydraulic oil, INTEGO PREMIUM 100 circulating oil an STEELO PREMIUM 320 gear oil.
