LUKOIL DEVELOPS PARTNERSHIP WITH ALROSA

LUKOIL has signed new contracts on lubricants supplies for ALROSA Group. For the first time of its collaboration with the mining company LUKOIL will be delivering products to ALROSA subsidiaries Severalmaz and Almazy Anabara.

In 2018, LUKOIL will increase the volume of supplies to ALROSA companies by 30% compared to the same figure for the previous year.

Since 2017, LUKOIL has been ALROSA's largest lubricants supplier. The Company provides mining giant with over 40 kinds of advanced oils and greases. This year, LUKOIL GEYSER MM 60 hydraulic oil has joined the list of such products. The product was developed in 2018 specifically for equipment components which require oils with extended change interval and Caterpillar – Cat FD-1 performance level.
